MANCHESTER AND VICINITY.

Powhile Schools .- A meeting of the Board of Trustees of Powhite district, Chester-field county, was held festerday. H. C. Wattins presided. They resolved to defer the appointment of teachers until Decem-ber, and decided to reopen the schools some time in January. Any teacher wishing to open a private school in the meanwhile in the public school-houses can do so.

Owners of Unlicensed Dogs. - The police were engaged yesterday searching for owners of unlicensed dogs and goats in the Third Ward. A number of such persons were reported, and have been summoned to appear at court this morning to show cause why they should not be fined. The officers will continue their search to-day throughout the other wards.

Taken to the Penitentiary .- Speriff Flournov, of Chesterfield, conveyed to the penitentiary yesterday Jacob Williams (colored). who was convicted at the last term of the County Court of house-breaking and petit larceny, and for which he received twentyfive lashes and is now to serve a three-years' imprisonment. Williams is said to be the one who not long since committed several depredations upon the citizens near Granite by robbing their hen-houses.

Chesterfield County Court.—The Chester-field County Court—Judge William I. Clopton presiding-was in session Tuesday until 11 o'clock at night, and then adjourned for the term. The attendance was quite small Tuesday as compared with the number of persons who were present on Monday. Sev- prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low eral criminal cases were disposed of. Henry Patram (colored), charged with attempting to commit an outrage, was acquit-William S. Borbam (a colored preacher) was fined $5 and costs-total, $35-for un-Lewful shooting.

Brief Rems .- The roads between this ly deranged. city and Chester are reported to be in excellent condition. A number of citizens from that place were in the city yesterday. Mr. John Bottoms, the Chesterfield giant, was in the city yesterday, looking as lively and as large us ever. There were services held in the different churches in the city last night. A meeting of the Council Committee or Retrenchment and Reform was held last night. Their action will be given to the Council at the regular meeting. Copies containing the report of the Manchester Annexation Committee to the Richmond Committee have been liberally distributed. Business along the water-line appeared to be quite brisk yesterday. The mills are this district are still engaged in telling the dear people their views upon every issue. Mr. John Lundie, of the Central House, is reported quite sick.

Editors Dispatch: Your correspondent asks for the answer to " My Queen." I believe this is it. It occurs in the Arundel Motto, by Mary Cecil Hay, and I think was written by her. Yours truly.

September 6, 1879. On a summer's day did I earliest meet her, By a dear, dear name I have learned to greet her. I knew not then, but 'tis come to-day,

With the selfsame firelight chining upon her, Streaming down on her ringlets' sheen— Ehe is sitting near me, she whom I honor— She that I walled for—my queen, my que n! I did not dream of ber tall or stately, She that I love is so fairy light;

She that I love is so fairy light;
I cannot picture her walk sedately.
Whatever she does is upe to be right,
And I found her courteous, I found her holy,
Pure in her spirit, this maiden I love;
Whether har hirth had heen noble or lowly,
I cared no more than the spirits above.
And I've given my heart to my lady's keeping,
And ever her strength on mine shall lean.
The stars shall fall and the angels be weeping.
Ere I cease to love her—my queen, my queen!

Yankee persistency is illustrated in the way the Maine Greenbackers stick to their nonsensical doctrines. A few years from now they will be wondering how their heads ever became so muddled on the financial questions.
